The Federal Transit Administration permits transit systems to set a minimum age limit for children riding without a parent or guardian. The WRTA has set the age limit at Nine (9) years old. In order to ensure compliance with this age limit, operators may question a child seeking to board the bus who appears to be Eight (8) years old or younger. If an operator is not satisfied with a child’s answer, the operator may call for assistance from a WRTA supervisor and/or public safety personnel. This policy applies to Paratransit Service as well.

Thanks for riding the WRTA!
